

February 3, 2011

Washington—U.S. Congressman Lloyd Doggett (D-TX) sent a letter to President Obama asking that he make it clear to President Hosni Mubarak of Egypt that the Government of Egypt will not receive one more cent of American money until he begins the peaceful, orderly transition to a democratically elected government today, including immediately lifting restrictions on the press and social media. Full text of letter available by clicking here .